WINTER set in pretty severely and suddenly on Tuesday last, with a rough snow-squall, and yesterday morning was very cold—the thermometer ranging from 8 to 10 above zero, at daylight.— From present appearances our Thanksgiving will be somewhat after the New England style, as regards weather.

Kansas has elected the Lane ticket for Governor. Crawford is elected Governor, Clark to Congress, and a majority of Lane men to the Legislature. This secures Lane's re-election to the Senate.

The campaign was very bitter, and conducted with a personal venom rarely equalled and never surpassed in American politics. Lane has won friends and inventive foes. He is a pretty good hater himself.

indications of Oil have recently been discovered, and large tracts of "territory"
